Saturday 6th May.

Dear Annie, Tim and Jenny,

We moved into our new house just three days ago. I think we are going to like it, even though it is strange not living in the same town as you any more. From our front windows we can see the sea, and at the back we have lovely views of the hills.

The removal truck broke down so it took us six hours to get here, when it should have only taken about two hours!

Grandad and I thought you might like to come and stay for a few days in the school holidays. If Mum and Dad can't come, then we'll meet you at the station.

With much love,

Gran xxx
