

Charlotte's Web

Chapter 6

WALT: identify specific common grammar errors, discuss the language of invitations and describe a party using exciting adjectives.

Starter Activity

Re-write this list of words choosing whether the word uses 'a' or 'an'. Remember, words that begin with a vowel take 'an'.

phone	elephant	pizza	ant	hour
Umbrella	tree	shed	fox	emu
Pillow	egg	igloo	object	gate
Alphabet	spade	flower	angel	eel
Insect	joke	spot	article	box

Reading Task

Read or listen to Chapter 6 and then answer these questions:

1. How do the animals treat Fern?

2. How did Charlotte describe the egg?

3. Where did Templeton hide his gift?

4. Is Templeton described in a good way in this chapter? How?

Written Tasks

Task:

Discuss the type of language used to write an invitation. Imagine Fern is hosting a party to welcome the goslings to the barn. Create an invitation inviting the other animals to come to the party. Use exciting adjectives to convince the other animals that they don't want to miss this party.

Extension Task

Task:

What are closed questions?

What are open questions?

Can you write 3 – 5 open questions about Chapter 6?

