

What is a Rainforest?

Across

4. The world's largest rainforest is located in the basin of this river.
5. The type of rainforests found in cooler parts of the world.
8. This helps vines, small trees and other plants to grow thickly in jungles.

Down

1. The type of rainforests found in mountainous areas.
2. Tropical rainforests cover less than _____ per cent of the Earth's land surface.
3. Tropical rainforests occur around this imaginary line that divides the Earth into two equal parts.
5. The type of rainforests that stay green all year round.
6. _____ rainforests have a dry season and trees that shed their leaves each year.
7. Rainforests are generally found in _____ area of the world.