

Onomatopoeia

JER English Exercise 179

Complete each sentence by giving the correct sound.

1. The room was soo quiet that the of the clock could plainly be heard.
2. The burglars presence was betrayed by the Of the rusty door hinges.
3. Colin awoke to theof raindrops against his bedroom window.
4. The firemen raced towards their engine as the siren
5. A loud of thunder warned the picnickers to take shelter from the approaching storm.
6. With aof the whistle the train entered the tunnel.
7. The approach of the highland regiment was heralded by theof bagpipes.
8. There was a loudof wings as the large flock of starlings flew up into the air.
9. The huntsmen rode through the village with aof hoofs.
10. The shrill.....of a bugle summoned the troops to parade.