Jesus Heals a Blind Man

The man's neighbours had seen him begging and said, "Are you the same man who was begging?"

Others said, "No! That's not him. He was blind!"
But the man said, "It is me! I was blind but now I can see!"

Then, Jesus said to the man, "Now, go and wash your face in the pool of Siloam."

The man returned, overjoyed that he could now see!

The man explained, "The man called Jesus came along. He made some mud and rubbed it on my eyes. Then, he told me to wash in the pool of Siloam. When I did, I could see!" The people said, "But where is Jesus now?" The man replied, "I don't know."

One day, as Jesus walked along, he saw a man who was begging at the roadside. The man had been born blind.

The disciples thought that the man must have done something bad to be blind. But Jesus said, "This man has not done anything bad. He is blind so that God's work can be carried out."

Jesus said, "While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." Then he spat on the dusty ground, mixed it into some mud and gently rubbed the mud on the man's eyes.
