

What Makes You Special?

You are a special person. You have talents, skills, qualities, relationships and ideas which are all important and valuable. They make you who you are.

Take some time to think about what makes you special and add your ideas to the spaces below.

Some ideas might include:

I am kind;

I listen to people;

I ask people to play;

I share with others.