

Here is another story for you to read. Remember our strategies when we are stuck? 1.Look at the picture. 2.Say the first sound. 3.Think of a word that would make sense.

Here is the mother lion and her little lion cub. What are they doing? They are waiting. They are waiting for the father lion to come back. Where is the father lion? He has gone hunting for food. What will he get?

Will it be a zebra?

. Maybe!

Will it be a hippo?

Maybe!

Draw what you think the lion got! Write a sentence to match your picture. Don't worry about the spelling!
