

Here is a little story for you to read!

Remember our strategies when we meet a new word? Look at the first sound. Look at the picture. Think of a word that makes sense!

Look at the boy. He is playing in the snow. He is sitting on his orange sleigh and he is going down the big hill. Will he go fast? Yes he will!

Will he have fun? Yes he will!

Will he fall off the sleigh?? I don't know!

Draw the boy at the bottom of the hill. Write a short sentence to match your picture. Don't worry about the spelling- we can fix that later!!
